Today at 12 noon an awareness programme on women's health was organised by the Women Development Cell of Birjhora Kanya Mahavidyalaya,Bongaigaon, in college premises in association with the celebration of International Women's Day 2024. On our invitation Dr.Biswajit Sinha,Dentist,a private practitioner, came and delivered an elaborate and informative lecture on women's health specially on oral health. Dr.Biswajit Sinha has covered every nook and corner of oral health. Both the faculties and students of the college interacted with the resource person.

In this programme the advisor of Assam Science Society, Bongaigaon and retired head teacher of Birjhora Girls' H.S. School, Bongaigaon Sri Chatra Singh Choudhury delivered an informative lecture on Child marriage and its remedies. Co-ordinator of Women Development Cell of BKM, Bongaigaon, Rupa Debadhikary started the meeting where Dr.Ranu Ray ,Co-ordinator of Women Cell, Assam Science Society, Bongaigaon, speaks about the importance of such awareness programmes and offer vote of thanks.

It is to be mentioned that the students of the college took active part, interacted with the resource persons and also performed songs and dance. They really enjoyed and enriched.
